Schleswig and is proceeding eastward, says the Central News correspondent at Copenhagen.

The Russians, according to his despatch, have bombarded Kohlu and Naga, on the coast of Asia Minor.

ATHENS, Nov. 9 (Associated Press).—Reports reaching here declare that British and French warships which are bombarding the Turkish forts at the Aegean entrance of the Dardanelles are rapidly reducing them.

It is believed here that with the fall of these forts the allied fleets with land marines on the Trojan plain, the site of the ancient city of Troy.

OFFICIAL FRENCH REPORT

Violent Thrusts at Allies Renewed at Dixmude and Ypres

PARIS, Nov. 9 (Associated Press).—The official announcement given by the French War Office this afternoon says:

"On our left wing the Germans have undertaken again an offensive movement on Dixmude and in the region of Ypres. Particularly to the southwest of Ypres their attacks have been everywhere repulsed."

"At the end of the day—referring to the entire front between Dixmude and the Lys—we have made progress along the major part of the line. Nevertheless, our advance is slow on account of the offensive movements undertaken by the enemy, and because of the strong organization which the enemy already has had the time to effect around his points of support. The fog has made operations difficult, particularly between the Lys and the Oise."

"On the centre, along the Aisne, the progress set forth in the official communications of yesterday has been maintained."

"In the Argonne and in the vicinity of Verdun there have been only actions of minor importance."

"In Alsace fresh attacks on the part of the Germans directed against the heights of Mount Sainte Marie have again resulted for them in a decided check."

PARIS, Nov. 9 (United Press).—Late reports to the War Office declare that night attacks have been resumed at Arras. Three violent assaults were made last night against the allied lines, but all were repulsed.

The artillery engagement, which has been in progress continually, has grown more violent all along the line.

Southeast of Bethune a hot artillery duel is in progress between the Germans and French and Bethune has been partially destroyed.

Villages and towns from the coast to Arras have been levelled.

OFFICIAL GERMAN REPORT.

Hill in the Argonne Region Taken After Weeks of Fighting

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The following statement was issued from German headquarters:

"Our attacks near Ypres and west of Lille were continued. An important elevation near Vienne-la-Chateau, on the west side of the Argonne, which has been the object of fighting for weeks past, was taken. Two huge guns and two quick-firers were captured."

NO STOMACH PAIN, GAS, INDIGESTION IN FIVE MINUTES

"Pape's Diaprepain" is the only real stomach regulator known.

"Buddy" put bad stomachs in "Buddy" does overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and all stomach troubles in five minutes—that just makes Pape's Diaprepain the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. What you eat ferments into carbonic gas, which you feel as a burning pain, indigestion, food and gas, head is dizzy and so on; breath is foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diaprepain" comes in contact with stomach acid, the acid is neutralized, the food is digested, the gas is absorbed and the joy of a healthy stomach is yours.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diaprepain will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction, or your druggist will give you your money back.

It's worth the weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, purest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world.—Adv.

FOUGHT ON ROOF EDGE WITH AN INSANE WOMAN

Police Doorman Nearly Dragged to Four-Story Plunge When Patrolman Comes to Rescue.

Doorman Stephen Ciochon of the Clymer street station, Williamsburg, had a desperate encounter with an insane woman at the edge of a four-story roof at No. 378 Division avenue early to-day. The woman was Mrs. Mary Selzer, forty-eight, wife of a Dock Department employee. Last night she had a violent attack, but her husband managed to quiet her. Early to-day she had a second attack and her husband, sent to the Clymer street station for a policeman. None being available, Doorman Ciochon was sent.

The woman saw him coming, and, breaking away from those holding her, ran to the roof, pursued by the doorman. She and Ciochon clinched in the street corner of persons shouted and pointed up until Policeman Reiff heard them. He went to the roof not an instant too soon, for the woman was about to jump and carry Ciochon with her. She was bound up in sheets and taken to the Kings County Hospital.

Two American Military Attaches Leave Presmyl.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 9.—A correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt has returned from the scene of the operations around Presmyl, in Gallia. Two American military attaches left Presmyl with him.

MISS COPPELL IS HER CHAUFFEUR'S BRIDE, IT IS SAID

Friends Hear Mistress of The Towers Has Quietly Wedded Robert Connors.

RELATIVE DENIES TALE.

Mystery Surrounds Wealthy Heiress's Reported Marriage at Age of Fifty.

Rumor has it that Cupid has again invaded The Towers, the family home at Tenafly, N. J., of the wealthy Coppells, of New York and New Jersey. This time, it is said, Cupid came riding in an automobile. Miss Elisabeth Coppel is said to be the bride of Robert H. Connors, who, up to two months ago, was her chauffeur.

Considerable mystery attends the case. Herbert Coppel, Miss Coppel's brother, said to-day that he saw his sister yesterday, and he was certain she was not married. The wedding, it is said, took place in New York.

Miss Coppel, or Mrs. Connors, as the case may be, was not at home at The Towers this morning. Her sister, Mrs. W. H. Alexander and Mrs. Louis Haight, who live there with her, were not at home either. They had gone to New York, the servants said. The servants said Miss Elisabeth had left for New York two days ago and was not expected home for several days. Mrs. Delancey Coster, another sister, lives at Tenafly also. A visit to her home elicited the information that she too had gone to New York this morning.

A relative of the family said the rumor had been heard a week ago and that Miss Coppel had denied it. The rumor came again last night, but could not be traced to a reliable source.

Miss Elisabeth, or Mrs. Connors, is financially independent and is fifty years of age.

A relative of Miss Coppel this afternoon said the story of her elopement was absolutely untrue.

WOMAN FORGER FREED.

Judge Suspends Sentence on Mrs. Ford, School Teacher.

Mrs. Mary Ford of No. 330 Clarkson avenue, Brooklyn, who was forced out of her position as a public school teacher when she became a mother recently, and whose husband deserted her, was brought before County Judge Roy in Brooklyn to-day for sentence, following her plea of guilty to indictments charging her with forging the endorsements of two women teachers to Board of Education checks for $125 and $150. She had been sentenced to three months in prison, but Judge Roy, after hearing her story, suspended the sentence.

"If you were a man," Judge Roy told her, "there is no question that you would go to prison for your offense is serious. You are a woman, however, and the mother of a child. Therefore, I will suspend the sentence."

Mrs. Ford wept bitterly and had to be assisted from the courtroom.

WAR SUMMARY

In Flanders the Germans, undaunted by past failures to break through to the Straits of Dover, have launched their expected new attack, regarded by the allies as their supreme effort.

In Russian Poland the immense armies of the Russian Emperor are pushing forward with surprising speed, threatening the Germans on home soil.

From Tokio comes the report that a Japanese army may be sent to the west to take its part with the British, French and Belgians in the struggles on the battlefield of Europe.

Berlin admits that the Russians are now well beyond the River Warthe, which roughly marks the eastern boundary of Germany. The Russian advance may have an important bearing upon the fighting in the west.

The Russian General Staff in Caucasus announces that a Turkish attack on the Russian position at Koprakulu was repulsed with heavy losses for the enemy. The Russian Black Sea fleet has renewed bombardment of towns along the coast of Asia Minor.

The Panama Canal may soon be put to the usages of war for the first time. Seven British dreadnoughts are said to be on their way to the canal, presumably proceeding to the Pacific coast.

American military observers, who have thus far been unable to view the fighting, may now have a glimpse of the war. The French War Office has relaxed its strict orders and will permit observers from neutral countries to go to the front.

Three jurors secured to try Siegel on charge of larceny.

Colorado Contractor Dies in Ambulance.

Daniel A. Canfield, fifty years old, a contractor from Greeley, Col., was stricken with heart trouble at Broad street and Exchange place this afternoon. He died in an ambulance which was conveying him to the House of Relief.

Also there is another question for the jury to answer: Can a man take in $3,500,000 deposits in a savings bank and lose it in his own bankrupt business enterprise, holding out the while to his depositors that he is operating a savings bank?

The two questions embody the inquiry the State's case will make—they are the ones which will cry out from the courtroom.

The first jurymen chosen was Edward Swan, a farmer, of Groveland.

Albert Orman, a farmer of Avon, was selected as the second juror.

Henry Siegel came into the courtroom accompanied by John H. Stanchfield and Mr. Lovell. His chair was beside that of Mr. Lovell, and as the latter is a big, broad shouldered man Siegel was almost blotted from the view of most of the spectators.

But they craned their necks or shifted their seats so they might get a glimpse of him. He sat quite unmoved, but he did look now and then as if he felt himself in the limelight.

The trial of Henry Siegel promises to present an intricate and a high of the paper of the hundreds of books, ledgers, day-books, journals, bank-books and checks which form the people's exhibits and by which Mr. Train expects to convict Henry Siegel of the larceny of something under $700 from the National Bank of Commerce of New York in June, 1913.

Among the incidents which Assistant District Attorney Train will bring forward during the course of the trial will be the financial journeying of one specific sum of money, $150,000, which, the prosecution alleges, was sent by Siegel from his bank in the Fourteenth Street Store to his store in Chicago, Siegel-Cooper & Company, the loan being concealed by shifting it around among several corporations. The trip of this sum is to be shown by means of a large chart in color so that the jurymen may obtain a sort of physical realization of its journeyings on the books.

It was the interest, the curiosity of the entire countryside to see this man whose failure for millions last December not only sent an echoing crash through New York's business world but left thousands of depositors in his private bank despairing and practically destitute, that crowded the courtroom when Justice William W. Clark took his seat upon the bench. Genesee is normally a quiet hamlet on a hill above the Genesee River; to-day it is the scene of one of the distinguished commercial trials of the country. And it was forced upon Genesee, willy nilly, by the pen stroke of Justice Blanchard, which granted Siegel's petition for change of venue, that the case might be tried away from the clamor of New York creditors.

Also there is another question for the jury to answer: Can a man take in $3,500,000 deposits in a savings bank and lose it in his own bankrupt business enterprise, holding out the while to his depositors that he is operating a savings bank?

The two questions embody the inquiry the State's case will make—they are the ones which will cry out from the courtroom.

CORONER REFUSES TO ANSWER QUERIES; INQUIRY IS HALTED

Mayor's Investigator Will Ask Court to Compel Witnesses to Testify.

Blocked at every turn by Coroner Herman Hellenstein's refusal to answer questions, Commissioner of Accounts Leonard M. Wallstein this afternoon abruptly brought the Mayor's investigation into the Board of Coroners to a sudden and unexpected close. Commissioner Wallstein announced to Frank Moss, counsel for Hellenstein, that he would make application to the Supreme Court this afternoon for an order compelling all witnesses in the investigation to answer his questions.

This determination of the Commissioner of Accounts was reached during a cross-examination of Coroner Hellenstein. It was admitted by the Coroner that he had applied for a position as a physician to the Fidelity and Casualty Company, the Aetna Insurance Company and the Interborough Rapid Transit Company. This was when the Workmen's Compensation act became a law. The Coroner did not think he was doing anything wrong by affiliating himself with insurance companies.

"Perhaps you can tell us what conversation you had with Dr. Archer of the Aetna Company?" suggested Commissioner Wallstein.

Coroner Hellenstein turned to his counsel and Mr. Moss advised him to refuse to answer.

"Who is Dr. Benjamin Schwartz?" was the next question.

"I decline to answer," replied the Coroner.

The Commissioner of Accounts rose to his feet. He began closing up records and portfolios and declared as he did so: "This entire proceeding will close for the present. It is my intention to see Corporation Counsel Polk and have him make application immediately to the Supreme Court for an order compelling Coroner Hellenstein and any other witnesses I may summon to answer my questions."

"This whole proceeding resolves itself into the question whether a public official has the right to come here and refuse to answer simple questions concerning his conduct of office, his obligations to the people who elected him and his management of the public affairs. I am conducting this inquiry in accordance with provisions of the charter and under direction of Mayor Mitchell. If Coroner Hellenstein or any other Coroner thinks he can evade this investigation he is sadly mistaken."

Tried to Sell Stolen Automobile.

Clarence K. Cocks of No. 2114 Avenue D, Brooklyn, was arrested this afternoon after he tried to sell an automobile worth $1,200 for $300 to the manager of an automobile sales house on Broadway. After his arrest he confessed he had stolen the machine from the front of Sheldon Stearns's home at No. 531 Third avenue, Brooklyn.

CARRANZA REFUSES TO YIELD POWER

Issues Decree as Chief Executive, and Defies Peace Delegates Who Visit Him.

VERA CRUZ, Mex., Nov. 9.—Gen. Carranza has issued at Cordoba a decree promising that the import and other taxes collected at Vera Cruz by the Americans since they have been in control of that seaport will not be levied again by the Mexicans after the American evacuation.

Carranza, however, makes no reference to the demand made upon him that those Mexicans who have been in the employ of the American authorities at Vera Cruz be given guarantees of protection. The decree was issued at Cordoba, where the First Chief is in conference with a committee from the Aguas Calientes convention.

Gen. Carranza met the members of the committee from Aguas Calientes, and in the conference the latter persisted in their demand that the sovereignty of the convention and the Presidency of Gutierrez be proclaimed. Gen. Carranza frankly disagreed with this plan, and with sarcasm expressed doubt of the assurances of the convention that Villa had retired from his command.

PAY LATE IN HOSPITALS.

Some Employees' Salaries Two Months in Arrears, They Say.

It was charged to-day by certain employees that salaries in Harlem Hospital are two months in arrears. Supt. O'Neill of the hospital admitted to an Evening World reporter that he had a few employees' salaries in arrears, but that the pay of a number of other employees of the institution was from two to three weeks overdue.

Dr. Hanlon, Superintendent of Bellevue and All Saints Hospitals, said 100 employees of the four allied hospitals had not been paid when their pay was due, but he declined to say if the claimants were more than three weeks behind.

"The trouble is in the Comptroller's office," said Dr. O'Hanlon. "Our payroll comes out of many funds that we are always mixed up."

"The allied hospitals have exceeded their payroll appropriations in the departments. They did not put in an advance request for a special appropriation. Consequently they found themselves unable to pay off about 100 employees. The Board of Estimate will make an appropriation in about five days. Then, in the course of routine, the employees will get their pay."

Not Due to Sex Alone

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all back-ache, dizzy headaches, urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills is bound to help bed kidneys get better. There are so many thousands of women who can tell you this from experience.

A Greater New York Woman's Experience

Mrs. Anna M. Goeller, 277 E. 141st St., Bronx, says: "I have no reason to withdraw the statement I gave several years ago recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I will add further that since this remedy cured me, I have never had a symptom of kidney trouble. You are at liberty to publish what I have stated."
